BIOGRAPHIES – SPEAKERS

Joe Amaral – Williams Lake, BC: A jeweller by profession, Joe got into the healing field in 1997 because of back, shoulder, and neck pain. As a result of dissatisfaction with his Doctor, Joe looked at Alternative Health. This led him to Reiki, which led him to other modalities and into becoming a "Healing Facilitator". e-mail -- jma@laketown.net; phone 250-392-3857 or 1-800-665-1565

Joe will be speaking on Bodyworkz which he created from modalities such as shiatsu, deep tissue massage, trigger point therapy, Healing Touch, and Reiki. Bodyworkz is a method of balancing the body so that aches and pains can be eliminated. Problems such as whiplash, knee and hip problems, back and neck aches can be removed by balancing the body. Joe believes that many hip, knee, and back operations are not necessary. With proper body balance and nutrition, the body can be restored to optimum health.

Joe will also give a post-conference workshop on Sunday afternoon entitled “The Secret of Staying Young and Healthy.” In this workshop, Joe will teach you various tricks and tips to keep you young and healthy. Bring along a blanket plus a pen and paper to make notes.

Theodore Bromley – Enderby, BC: Theodore, well known as The Crystal Man, owns a wholesale crystal gemstone business. Theodore has a deep love for the ancient spirituality of Polynesia, particularly Hawaii. He has adapted the Huna teachings to create a unique healing circle which has grown both in power and effectiveness. He is also the author of the spiritual novel “The White Rose: The Day the World Looked Up.”

Theodore’s workshop will be in two parts. The first part, “The Basics of Huna” will give background information about the healing circle and why it is effective. In the second part, participants will experience the power and bliss of a Huna Healing Circle.

Marilyn Collins -- Coquitlam, BC: Marilyn is a Spiritual Scientist who has studied quantum or light physics for the last ten years and brings new light and truth to old understandings. She is a gifted public speaker with a background in business and a 20 year involvement and certification in many of the healing arts.

Marilyn's presentation, "The Physics of 'I Am'," provides a new perspective of Jesus' words "I Am That I Am." Learn from physics the true meaning of our spiritual quest and the value of understanding "I Am."

Maryjane Gottschlag – Burnaby, BC: Using her background in communication, her work in the movie industry, and in Interior Design at BCIT, Maryjane has taken colour to a new level of science and healing. As a holistic colour consultant, she is now working with the Colour Energy Corporation and with the latest in European anti-stress technology. Maryjane teaches about colour and how important it is for our daily life.

In her talk on "How to Balance Your Chakras Using Oils, Gems, and Fashion," Maryjane shows you four quick ways to achieve balance in your daily life by incorporating certain gemstones, essential oils, and the right fashion accessories to complement your body's chakra energy.

Troi Leonard – Kelowna, BC: Troi has been a healer, teacher and spiritual guide for over 30 years. Since his early twenties, Troi's journey has been leading him ever deeper into himself, through the applications of Sound, Colour and Vibration, Esoteric Philosophy, Psychology and Healing.

Troi's presentation is titled "The Keys To Attaining a Permanent State of Higher Consciousness." He speaks about the tools we can use to achieve a higher state of consciousness, reverse the aging process, align and integrate ourselves with the Soul's plan – the purpose of our being.

His workshop on Monday, titled "Vibrational Keys Towards Personal and Planetary Transformation," provides a plan for the restoration of the integration between the struggling personality and the Soul, and providing the Soul with a more suitable vehicle of service.

NaMastA – Edmonton, AB: NaMastA is a Medicine Woman who is guided by a group she calls "The Ancient Ones." While in a light trance, she brings forth information from this group which is required at this time and which serves the highest good. She offers guidance and information on both personal and global levels. She is a teacher of the Medicine Wheel as well as many other sacred modalities. During her presentation she will speak of the Sacred Cycles and our part in the Divine Plan.

NaMastA's post-conference workshop will focus on Soul Retrieval which involves integrating our darkness as well as our light. We will welcome our power animals and listen for the messages they bring. In addition we will learn about the sacred doorways and portals of the Medicine Wheel.

Kirby Seid – San Pablo, CA: Kirby Seid has traveled the world for crystals, fossils, and ancient artifacts for his mineral business. He has taught crystal workshops and designed crystal tools for shamanic practices for the past 25 years. Kirby is dedicated to the union of the crystal/mineral kingdom with our spiritual human evolution. His presentation "Mystical Meditation with the Light Labyrinth and Sha Na Ra: The Ancient Crystal Skull" is a sophisticated computer-generated programme of varying light cycles and stunning colour effects which are projected into large quartz crystals.

Kirby will present a post-conference workshop entitled “The Science, Art and Spirit of Crystal/Light” which builds on his evening presentation and explores in depth the light labyrinth experience with large quartz crystals and the ancient crystal skull.
