Soul Retrieval of your Home**

Your House is your Healer and holds the Ki to your future

HARMONIC CODE – A Harmonic Code Energy Imprint is embedded into the soul of a building at conception, giving it a unique Ki signature.

SOUL FRAGMENTS – The Soul fragments of both people and the buildings leave coded imprints in the energy matrix of space. Events are recorded in the cellular structure of physical materials and in the etheric energy matrix. Thus dreams and emotions are left lingering in the Akashic record of the building and overlaid on the original Soul Code. These fragments can span lifetimes owing to a multitude of emotions which distort the unity consciousness.

PSYCHOTHERAPEUTIC REGRESSION – Through Psychotherapeutic Regression the soul fragments of a building can be gathered. It can be taken back to ‘Zero Point’ – the moment of conception, its seed-point. By clearing, re-aligning and reconnecting to the original coding, its unique purpose can be re-membered. If a new use for the building is needed, then new codes can be programmed

THE JOURNEY HOME – I will guide you through a visualization journey of your own home. It may take you through Psychic and Paranormal happenings, memories of your life patterns and all those of the previous occupants. There will be the opportunity to see what may be blocking your personal energy, as reflected in your home, and the choice of changing and re-aligning your inner and outer space.

Remember, you chose the place in which you live!

THE SEED CORE CODING – The purpose and function of the building. It can be shaped and influenced by the architect who may impose, into the seed coding, their own life pattern issues. If they are happy, then so will the building – if distressed and angry or mad, then they will create madness in the people that will live there!

SOUL OVERLAY – the life events which overlay the soul of a building. Everything that happens within a building is recorded in the cellular structure of the physical materials and the energetic matrix in the etheric aura.

FUSION OF PAST AND PRESENT – By getting back to the core seed coding of the original design of the building and clearing the overlay events through the years, this can illuminate the unconscious patterns that run our lives.

By either re-establishing its original purpose, or giving it a new function, one can empower its current residents to achieve their Soul journey in life.

Conference Day: Friday Evening September 28, 7:30-9:00pm

The Living Faery Tradition of the Ancestors: moving away from glitter, toward Earth Light

In the current haze of popular interest in all things Fairy, it is all too easy to lose sight of the original sources in folkloric magic, and replace them with whimsy, sentiment, and fantasy. Far from being about glittery wings and skimpy dresses, the old Faery Tradition involves an ongoing sacramental relationship with powerful spirit beings rooted in the environment. Such spirit beings offer an enduring and ever-available interaction with humanity. (For clarity the spelling Fairy refers to popular usage, while Faery refers to the ancestral traditions).

During the 19th century Celtic revival, poets such as W. B. Yeats and Fiona Macleod often defined the “High” faery tradition and the “Low”. The High involved those luminous spiritual beings, described in ancient manuscripts, that were like unto gods and goddesses, often identified with the ancient traditions of the Tuatha de Danaan (Clan of the goddess Danu), while the Low were the seemingly humble spirits of tree, rock, spring or well. The true picture is considerably more interactive: the small beings are the cells and organs of the larger, and the living faery tradition brings us into an organic hierarchy of consciousness and energy.

At this crucial crossroads-time of environmental stress, pollution, and destruction, the ancestral Faery traditions offer us ancient yet enduring and vivid ways of re-establishing our relationship to the living world of Nature.

How may we relate to the Faery races? What can we offer Them, if we stand as ambassadors for humanity? What will they, in turn, offer us as contemporary human beings? Far from being an escapist whimsy, the Faery Tradition reveals ever deeper and more potent levels of consciousness and energy, of union and interaction with spiritual allies that encourage us to find our true role as humans on planet Earth. Join R J Stewart for insights, inspiration humor and awe, from the Living Faery Tradition.

R J Stewart’s books include: The UnderWorld Initiation, Earth Light, Power Within the Land, The Living World of Faery, Celtic Gods Celtic Goddesses, Celtic Myths Celtic Legends, and Robert Kirk, Walker Between Worlds (a new edition of the famous 17th century Secret Commonwealth of Elves Fauns and Faeries, with detailed commentary on the magical and folkloric content).

The Well of Light**

Drawing upon material from R.J.'s books The Well of Light, Earth Light, and Power Within the Land, plus new insights from a forthcoming book The Magic of Three Sticks, this practical workshop will give participants unique methods for ongoing spiritual relationship with the Living Land. Based upon the older European and Celtic faery traditions, especially those of R.J.'s native Scotland, presented anew for the 21st century.

We will explore techniques found in ancestral legends and traditions that reveal practical sacromagical methods, handed down through many generations. They include Opening the Well of Light, working with the Regenerative Earth Light, how to find and build relationships with powerful Faery Allies, making Offerings on the Land, and Going to the Crossroads in vision, in sleep, and in body. The old Faery Tradition is very different from the contemporary popular idea of fairies, so this workshop is not about little glittery people with butterfly wings.
